Abstract: Rationalization and stabilization following the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s combined with the expansion and liberalization of regional and global trade to create significant parts industries in China, Indonesia, and the Republic of Korea. Conventional policies of stabilization and liberalization, however, cannot fully explain growth patterns. Japan and Korea grew into major players before liberalizing trade and investment, while even after extensive liberalization Indonesia has yet to move from extensive to intensive growth. These anomalies suggest that to explain success in the auto parts industry we need to move beyond liberalization to look at policies and institutions promoting economies of scale, skill formation, quality upgrading, supplier-linkage cooperation, and innovation. In Japan, the regional and global leader, innovative assemblers led industrial development and supported key suppliers, but the government also supported diffusion of quality control techniques and new technology to small and medium enterprises, and encouraged stable employment among core employees. Korea remains weaker on both small and medium enterprise and employment fronts, but government-encouraged consolidation around a small number of business groups, an extended period of protection, and support for export promotion led to economies of scale. Liberalization of foreign investment after the financial crisis helped ameliorate the excessive statism of earlier policies and strengthened the parts industry. In China, liberalization for WTO entry, rapid expansion in demand, and strong support by local governments encouraged a wave of foreign investment in both assembly and parts. In contrast, institutional weaknesses continue to constrain development opportunities in Indonesia.

Within a few short months in 1997, Asian economies that had been considered not only healthy but "miraculous" suddenly fell off a precipice as investors withdrew massively first from Asian currencies and, in rapid order, from equity markets across the region. On October 27 1997, the turmoil in Asian markets spooked Wall Street in the largest single-day decline in history, a drop of 550 points. It was predicted that the Asian crash could drive the US trade deficit from $191 billion to $300 billion by 1998, creating huge new tensions in relations with some of the largest US trading partners. These wrenching changes, following a generation of success, raise numerous questions about the steps that led to the crisis, its likely outcome and the limits and constraints of "Asian capitalism". Edith Terry presents a blow-by-blow account of the crisis, beginning with the 1996 collapse of the Bangkok Bank of Commerce. In her overview, she links the fall of the Asian miracle with the theme of globalization, arguing that the crisis demonstrates the urgency of dismantling restraints to trade, investment, and financial services, and that the United States should take leadership in pushing for new and sweeping reform through the World Trade Organization and in bilateral negotiations with its trading partners. The final section of the book deals with the rise of the "Asian miracle" - how the myth was created, who created it, why it succeeded for so long - and is informed by analysis of the Japanese prototype.

"" Sebagai chief corporate function, Pak Sri Martono berhasil untuk terus melakukan leaders creation dan sinergi antarperusahaan di Astra Group, yang membuat Astra bisa besar seperti sekarang ini. (Priyono Sugiarto, President Director PT Astra International Tbk) Pak Sri adalah orang yang tepat untuk memberikan pendidikan di APINDO Training Center. Terbukti, ia telah terbiasa dan mampu mengatur puluhan ribu pekerja atau karyawan di lingkup Astra Group. (Sofjan Wanandi, Ketua Umum Asosiasi Pengusaha Indonesia - APINDO) Di usia menjelang pensiun, Mas Sri masih terus bekerja dengan segenap passion. Inilah martabat tertinggi bagi seorang profesional. Tidak ada kata lelah, tiada kata jera. Inspirasi inilah yang hendak ditularkan kepada kaum muda. (A. Tony Prasetyantono, Kepala Pusat Studi Ekonomi dan Kebijakan Publik UGM, Komisaris Independen Bank Permata) Saya perhatikan bahwa Pak Martono bukan tipe orang yang ingin tampak menonjol di depan, memimpin. Ia bukanlah tipe orang yang take a lead. Ia lebih suka menempatkan dirinya sebagai follower. (Theodore Permadi Rachmat, mantan President Director PT Astra International Tbk, 1984 - 1998 dan 2000 - 2002, kini President Director PT Triputra Group) He has great values in life which, I'm sure, have helped him to build his career as an honest, clever and human manager. I suppose it is one of the reasons that he was made HR president of Astra... (Maurits Demeyere, Industrialis dari Antwerpen, Belgia) Di mata saya, Mas Sri sangat sabar, kebabakan, namun juga teliti dan memiliki kharisma. Serta tentu saja sangat ramah. (Nungki Kusumastuti, Penari dan Pekerja Seni) Catatan kami yang lain tentang Mas Sri Martono adalah kepeduliannya yang besar terhadap sesama yang tidak berdaya. Tentu, sedikit-banyak, ini datang dari seManga, Manhua & Manhwat "man for others" yang diguratkan oleh para pendidik kami semasa di SMA Kolese de Britto. (Gandung Bondowoso, Pengajar Institut Kesenian Jakarta)""
