Martin Beckmann is going to celebrate his sixtieth birthday. This is almost unbelievable considering the vitality, ingenuity, and activity which he continues to show as he always did. It is an honorable and pleasant duty for the whole economics community to show him the respect, gratitude, and affection which he deserves. Thus, those who have contributed to this festschrift may be thought of as a delegation from a much larger community in which all of us are joined; the editors in particular feel deeply connected with
