What I enjoy about the Unlikeable Demon Hunter series is that each book has a complete story. There is a 'set up' for the next book, but you are not left on a cliff-hanger and do get a 'whole' story for your money. The angsty relationships play out well and there is always growth in the characters or a reveal that anchors them to reality.

So this is Book 4 in the Unlikable Demon Hunter series. This installment evolves around Nova's first real assignment where she must hunt a demon drug dealer. In the midst of completing her assignment she also continues to search for members of the brotherhood who are possessing demons. This part of the book was the most interesting.

The Unlikeable Demon Hunter: Crave (Audiobook) by Deborah ...

A global wanderer, hopeless romantic, and total cynic with a broken edit button, Deborah writes urban fantasy to satisfy her love of smexy romances and tales of chicks who kick ass. This award-winning author is all about the happily-ever-after, with a huge dose of hilarity along the way. "It takes a bad girl to fight evil.
